

Lullaby
by Carol Santoro

Sing for me a lullaby tonight I do not sleep sit close and whisper soft words to fill my soul so deep.

Place your cool hand gently upon my fevered brow lift my saddened spirit high up into a cloud.

And take me to Nirvana let the angels hold my hand we'll circle life together a never ending band.

And tell me a sweet story one I've never heard before of Kings and Queens and Camelot and all that I adore.

When sleep has finally calmed me and demons call no more hush out the burning candle and gently close the door.
